3 WAYS TO HANDLE HATE

COURAGEISAHABIT.ORG

Most parents aren't accustomed to being attacked, understandably it can be quite jarring.

HERE IS HOW TO REFRAME HATE ➔

ONE / Focus on your actions rather than online attacks

- » Inform & encourage a fellow parent.
- » Expose a radical administrator to get them removed.
- » Find a pornographic book and gather parents to get it removed.
- » Help a local school board candidate.

TWO / Nastiness is a valuable data point

- » The intensity & frequency of attacks tells you that what you're doing is painful to their agenda.
- » Do more of whatever it is that is making your haters mad.
- » Hate is a more valuable compass than pats-on-the-back.

THREE / Your opponents do not want you, they want your child's mind

If someone broke into your house & wanted to molest your child, you wouldn't care what they labeled you.

Proponents of SEL, CRT, and the Transgender Cult are no different. Treat their opinions the same.
