ABUSERS

HOW TO SPOT THEM

THE ACTIVIST

You're killing marginalized people.

THREAT LEVEL

They're the ones that will infiltrate your schools and undermine all excellent standards to achieve their social justice mission.

BEHAVIOR

They're extremely fanatical and take action. They generally dedicate most of their time to one or two social justice extremist groups. They hate America, parental rights, individual success and independence. Their entire identity is wrapped up in their group and they'll do anything to stay relevant. They're the woke school counselor or teacher.

RECOMMENDATION

Spend most of your energy in exposing their radical goals. Always be on offense. Get them out of any position of influence as quickly as possible.

THE LIAR

It's not happening. Show me the proof.

THREAT LEVEL

MEDIUM

Most people don't know they're dealing with The Liar, so they waste their time and energy trying to engage them.

BEHAVIOR

They're the "it isn't happening/show me proof" people. They will proclaim, "It's just about inclusion/empathy" or "You're fear mongering/it's a conspiracy." They will ask endless questions but they're disingenuous, they don't actually want information. Every time you show them evidence, they will move the goal post. Their goal is to waste your time, exhaust you, and gaslight you. They believe in everything The Activists do but they're too much of a coward to come out and admit it.

RECOMMENDATION

Do not engage or give them what they're asking for. If they cannot waste your time, then their threat level drops to "Low." If you must engage, you can quickly expose them for who they are. Show them a book like Gender Queer and ask them for their thoughts. They will not be able to condemn it because it isn't that they don't believe it's happening in K-12, it's that they WANT it to happen, but they want parents to stay silent.

THE DEFLECTOR

“What about...?”

THREAT LEVEL

They make it their business to support all things harmful to children, they just don't want parents to make it their business to defend children from exploitation.

BEHAVIOR

Close sibling to The Liar. They'll often say "It's none of my business", "Why is it your business?", or "Why are you so obsessed with children's genitals?" when confronted with the sexual indoctrination or mutilation of children. Another go-to excuse is "children see it on the internet anyway" when they defend pornography in schools. This is generally where pedophiles or pedophile-apologists hide. They will also deploy "Whataboutism" (ie: What about pastors, priests, the Bible, and guns?). They will never be able to answer straight forward questions.

RECOMMENDATION

Their threat level is only Medium if they can successfully distract you away from exposing groomers. Ignoring is the best move. If you must put them away quickly, simply agree with them that the "whatabout" group should be locked away permanently. Then ask them if they would now agree that the school admins and doctors that support the Transgender ideology should also be locked away. At that point, they will then usually turn to tactics deployed by The Liar and you've exposed them for their dishonesty.

THE AVATAR

I stand with...

THREAT LEVEL

They will never take real action beyond filling out a few petitions. They will only act when in a group. They lack any ability or power to stop you in your mission to defend your child.

BEHAVIOR

They're the "I support the current thing" people. They have no convictions and will go along with whatever is popular at the moment. They're the ultimate "virtue signalers." They have nearly zero knowledge about any topic and 99% of what they say is from catch phrases they read on social media. The white-guilt crowd will very often live in this profile.

RECOMMENDATION

Ignore and don't waste your time engaging. They'll move onto the "next thing" in a few weeks. If you must engage, expose their lack of commitment and being a fair-weather fan.

THE SPINELESS

We're all in this together.

THREAT LEVEL

They present a unique challenge because parents often feel bad going against them because of how nice they are. However, the reality is they're every bit as dangerous as The Activist because they're still allowing indoctrination to impact children.

BEHAVIOR

They're the "really nice and friendly" people often in positions of authority or influence. They could be a principal, superintendent, teacher, school counselor, or education scholars and fellows. The problem is they have no backbone. They will go along with whichever group is the loudest. The Spineless will push through programs like SEL because "it sounds good." They don't want to make waves so they go along to get along.

RECOMMENDATION

While they may not have the ill intent of The Activist, you still must deal with them in much of the same way. They could be the nicest person in the world but it doesn't mean they are qualified to be a gatekeeper for children in K-12. If they cannot stand up for themselves they will never be able to stand up for your children. You have to remove them from their position.

THE WEASEL

You're crazy!

THREAT LEVEL

They're bottom feeders. Commonly known as trolls. They are completely powerless.

BEHAVIOR

Their comments or accusations are very short and meaningless. They're the most unintelligent of the abusers, so they will often use GIFs. 90% of their comments will have nothing to do with the issue at hand. When they are cornered, they'll respond with, "I didn't say that.", "Looks like I touched a nerve.", or "Glad I wasted your time." They will repeat the same comments in spam-like fashion in an effort to detract you from focusing your energies on the individual and/or policies that are abusing children. The majority of their comments will be "strawman" (ie: "Why do you want children to feel unsafe?") or personal in nature.

Ignore.

FINAL SUMMARY

- Each one of these profiles are child abusers. They may come from different intentions or motivations, but the results are the same: they contribute to children being indoctrinated politically and sexually in K-12 and/or they participate in silencing and gaslighting parents.
- Each of these profiles, at some point in time, will throw labels at you (xxx-ism, xxx-phobe, xxx-ist). Ignore the accusation because it is solely meant to silence you. Do not address it or defend it. Always stay on offense.
- A person may belong to more than one profile. For example, The Liar could also be The Avatar. Handle accordingly.
